The Titanic sank in the early morning hours of April 15, 1912, during its maiden voyage. The disaster occurred approximately 400 nautical miles south of Newfoundland, Canada. The luxury liner struck an iceberg late on April 14, leading to the rupture of at least five watertight compartments. Despite efforts to send distress signals, the ship sank at approximately 2:20 AM on April 15, resulting in the loss of about 1,500 lives.
